

An Academic Overture to Summer 2019.

All lectures start at 10am

Tuesday January 15

Paul Bywater.

“And their ghosts may be heard” 1975. The story of a group of disenchanted Australian workers who sailed to Paraguay in 1893 to set up a utopian society.

Thursday January 17

Dr Kerry Howells, UTAS.

Living and learning with gratitude.

Tuesday January 22

Greg Barns, Barrister.

A decline in liberal values.

Thursday January 24

Suzy Lebas

Chinese textiles-history of weaving and Embroidery in China till the end of Qing dynasty.

Tuesday January 29

Robin Alington Maguire.

The French Balloon Corps of the 1780s.

Thursday January 31

Dr Louise Grimmer, UTAS.

Airbnb and the impact of word of mouth marketing for small business in Tasmania.

Tuesday February 5

Dr Penny Jones, UTAS.

What happened to the Indus civilisation? Did climate = collapse?

Thursday February 7th

Dr Lucy Tatman, UTAS.

Silences. A reflection on the variety of silences which are created In human gatherings and encounters.

Tuesday February 12th

The Annual Roy and Maureen Davies Memorial Lecture.

“A place-based society.”

Delivered by Professor Rufus Black, Vice-Chancellor UTAS

Followed by a champagne morning tea.

The U3A parking area, which supports 70 car spaces,

Is located on Aberdeen Street, adjacent to the tennis courts. The entrance is opposite Corinda B&B.

Parking is free and vouchers are not required for the summer program.

There is also limited street parking.

Summer program 2019
University of the Third Age (U3A)
Hobart Inc.

The entire program will take place at the Lecture Theatre, Philip Smith Centre

2 Edward Street

The Glebe, Hobart.

Time: 10-11am

Entry: Gold Coin. (Morning tea included afterwards.)

Enquiries: the convenor: 0431 860 086